

Birding in Costa Rica

Costa Rica is alive with birdlife and is a major hub of the North American winged migration.

Both the casual and dedicated bird watcher will delight in the numbers of species and the ease of viewing; Costa Rica is a birders paradise. This trip is designed for the independent traveler and is moderately priced.

You will visit two popular birding locations, Arenal and the Monteverde Cloud Forest. We also offer a 4x4 rental which will allow you to stop along the way. Our office staff are experienced Costa Rican birders and can answer your questions.
